

WHAT'S ON

EXCURSION

Corinth Canal

> Athens

> Saturday

A refreshing all-day family excursion, including a sailing trip on the Corinth Canal, is being organized for Saturday, with a private coach to Corinth, a swim in the sea or a swimming pool, as well as a buffet lunch and relaxation by the beach or the pool.

For information:

tel 6944.997.745.

MUSIC

James Blunt

> Athens

> Tonight & Tomorrow

Popular British pop artist

James Blunt will play at the Lycabettus Theater tonight and tomorrow. Tickets can be purchased at the Badminton Theater (Goudi Military Park) and at Virgin Megastores.

Lycabettus Theater,

Lycabettus Hill,

tel 210.722.7209.

European Music Day

> Athens

> Opens Today

The free annual festive music event kicks off tonight and will fill Athens with music until Saturday. Live shows of electronica, indie, hip-hop, pop and more will take place in Kotzia, Klafthmonos, Koumoundourou and Asomaton squares, at Technopolis and at the Kinky Kong venue today.

For information:

www.musicday.gr.

Diotima Quartet

> Athens

> Tonight

The Diotima Quartet – violinists Naaman Sluchin and Yun-Peng Zhao, violist Franck Chevalier and cellist Pierre Morlet – will perform works by Pascal Dusapin, Janacek and Bartok at the Athens Concert Hall.

Athens Concert Hall,

1 Kokkali & Vas. Sofias,

tel 210.728.2333.

Galani & Arvanitaki

> Athens

> Tonight

Dimitra Galani and Eleftheria Arvanitaki will join forces for a concert of quality Greek music at the Vrachon Theater this evening. Tickets can be purchased at Metropolis music stores.

Vrachon Theater,

tel 210.762.6438.

Nafplion Festival

> Nafplion

> Opens Tonight

The Nafplion Festival of classical music opens tonight, with the city's K. Nonis Municipal Conservatory in a program of works by Verdi, Mozart and others at the Palamidi Castle. The festival will run to June 29.

For information:

www.nafplionfestival.gr.